SPORTING NEWS.

MANCHESTER MEETING-

YESTERDAY.

EASY VICTORY OF PLANET.

(SPECIAL TELEGRAM)

MANCHESTER, SATURDAY.

The attendance at Castle Irwell to-day was one of the largest ever seen at the Salford enclosure. This was the more remarkable, in view of the fact that the weather throughout the forenon was of a depressing type, and that a penetrating druzzle set in shortly after ten o'clock. However, matters greatly improved as the hour for the commencement of racing approached, and when the field for the Farewell Nursery filed on to the track waterproofs and umbrelias were discarded. Very little, however, could be seen of the racing.

THE LATE MR. NEIL PRIMROSE.

Many who knew him will learn with great regret of the death of Mr. Nail Primrose. For some years he was a handsome figure about London, and on a racecourse. He took to politics, and had a brilliant career before him, but he went back to the Army some months ago, and has died of wounds. A few years back he inherited a nice fortune from a relative on him mother's side. Although, of course, his mother was Miss Hannah de Rothschild, it made no difference to the religion of Lord Rosebery's second son. He had, however, been spoken of a slikely to be an officer in the projected Jewish Regiment. Always a great personal friend of Lord Derby's in social life, he married the Earl's daughter, Lady Victoria Stanley, in 1915. Mr. Primrose would have been 35 next month.

The £50,000 NOW URGE NTLY WANTED by the R.S.P.C.A. will provide additional hospital bed accommodation for 5000' horses. Every £10 sent will provide another hospital bed.

The R.S.P.C.A. Fund for Sick and Wounded Horses is the only one authorised by the Army Council to assist the Army Veterinary Corps. Already it has provided the means for Hospital Accommodation for over 10,000 horses-but it cannot stop there now that 5000 more beds are wanted.

Horses are in the fighting-line every day—increasingly! Help them, and you also help our men. Contribute TO-DAY, per form below, for as many "beds" (£10 each) as you conveniently can. If you cannot give much give what you can. Every-body's help is needed,

LAW COURTS.

PROCEEDINGS AGAINST A SOLICITOR.

In the Court of Appeal on Saturday, before the Lord Chancellor, the case of a solicitor and the Solicitors Act, 1898, was called.

Mr. Wylie, K.C. (instructed by Mr. Gerald Howe), who appeared for the solicitor concerned, said that on the last occasion his lordship was good enough to let the matter stand for a week. Since then he had got no instructions whatever, but he got Mr. Howe to go to the doctor and see what the condition of the patient was. Counsel handed up a medical certificate, which, he said, spoke for itself.

Serjeant Matheson, who (instructed by Mr. W. G. Wakely) appeared for the Incorporated Law Society, said Mr. Wylie had shown him the certificate since he came into Court, and he could not oppose an application for an adjournment.

The Lord Chancellor, having read the document, said that, if it accurately described the gentleman's condition, it did not matter what order was made.

Mr. Wylie suggested a morth's adjournment, and said that if the patient recovered sooner he would notify Mr. Wakely.

The Lord Chancellor adjourned the matter for three weeks. PROCEEDINGS AGAINST A SOLICITOR.

COMMISSIONERS FOR OATHS. COMMISSIONERS FOR OATHS.

On Saturday, before the Lord Chancellor, Mr. W. H. Carson (instructed by Mr. W. J. O'Reilly) applied to have Mr. James Leonard of Grunge, Co. Sligo, Clerk of Petty Sessions, appointed Commissioner for Oaths at Grange.

The Lord Chancellor granted the application.

Mr. Carson (instructed by Mr. James A. Klernan) also applied to have Mr. John O'Reilly, of Carrigallen, County Leitrim, Clerk of Petty Sessions, appointed a Commissioner.

The Lord Chancellor made the appointment.

An application was renewed by Mr. Vincent Rice (instructed by Messrs, Corrigan and Corrigan) to have Mr. John F. Smyth, Castleblayney, solicitor, appointed a Commissioner, but the decision was again postponed.

The object is to stimulate the production and circulation of national riches by the support of banking credits through the agencies of the Bank of Brazil, which are certain to increase in the interior of the country. This faculty for financial emission will allow the volume of circulation to be equally applied to the needs of the market, following the methods of the Bank of France and the Bank of England. The idea has been favourably received by all the producing Means.

D. LEWIN.

No Lady of judgment has a liking for cheapness; her first thought is Quality.

Then if for any good reason the price is reduced, so much the better; she buys, knowing the value of her purchase is in no way injured by its low price. To this is due the immense success of Walpoles' Sale; low price. To this is due the immense success of Walpoles' has is that Quality upon which the name of Walpoles has is that Quality upon which the name of Walpoles has stood for over 150 years. The big reductions are stood for over 150 years. The big reductions are made possible by factory surplus stocks and by minimum profits. As prices after this Sale will have to be considerably higher, to Spend Now is to Save.
